EMILY CARR UNIVERSITY WELCOMES DR. DAVID BOGEN

Newly Appointed Vice-President, Academic + Provost

Vancouver, BC | Emily Carr University is very pleased to announce that Dr. David Bogen has been appointed Vice-President Academic + Provost. His appointment will commence in August 2011.

Dr. Bogen's teaching and research expertise combine social theory, language and social interaction, emerging media, and organizational design. He received his BA, Philosophy (Macalester College) and his MA and PhD, Sociology (Boston University). Dr. Bogen comes to Emily Carr from his post as Associate Provost, Academic Affairs at the Rhode Island School of Design (RISD), where he was responsible for academic and institutional planning, program review and development, and research and external partnerships.

The author of Order Without Rules: Critical Theory and the Logic of Conversation (SUNY Press: 1999) and, with Michael Lynch, The Spectacle of History: Speech, Text, and Memory at the Iran-Contra Hearings (Duke University Press, 1996), Dr. Bogen has published numerous articles, book chapters, and reviews that explore the intersection of language, technology, and everyday life.

Prior to his work at RISD, Dr. Bogen was a faculty member and Executive Director of the Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies at Emerson College where he worked with faculty and administration to found and develop the Institute and advance interdisciplinary curriculum initiatives across Emerson. His most recent work focuses on social, organizational and perceptual issues in the design of computer mediated interactive environments.

"We are absolutely thrilled that David will be joining us," says Dr. Ron Burnett, President + Vice-Chancellor, Emily Carr University of Art + Design. "His experience and keen interest in research, interdisciplinary curriculum development and public engagement will be a fantastic asset to the University in this time of growth and change."
