

Roland R-26 Authorization Exam

You must get all nine questions correct to be authorized to use the Roland R-26.

Name:

Date:

Student #:

Instructor:

1. List three environmental conditions that would damage the Roland R-26.

1.

2.

3.

2. Describe how you would connect the Roland to a power source.

3. Besides turning on the Low Cut Filter setting, which accessory would one use to cut down on background noise from wind or breath noise?

4. What should you do to the SD card prior to starting to record?

5. What should be turned off if you are NOT using a condenser microphone?

6. How many channels should be selected to get a stereo sound?

a) 6 b) 2 c) 4 d) 1

7. What file type, bit rate and sample rate should you record in?

File type:

Bit rate:

Sample rate:

8. Why should you never insert or remove an SD card while the power is on?

9. If recording a band, what should the input sensitivity be set at?

a) medium b) high c) low